A thanks to our sponsors and more sailing days added to the schedule

Sponsors are an essential part of PPSL's all-volunteer effort to provide sailing opportunities for Pittsburgh area high school students. We offer a sincere thanks to them. You can join the sponsors listed below who support high school sailing by clicking on the link at the bottom of this newsletter or by visiting our website www.pittsburghsailing.com // We are excited to announce the addition of Saturday mornings to our high school sailing schedule. The Saturday session will help us provide additional sailing opportunities for Pittsburgh area high school students // The Sailing Club of the University of Pittsburgh is another essential partner for our sailing program. PPSL is working to assist in Pitt sailing for their Fall practice schedule.

We recently added a Saturday morning sailing session to our weekly schedule. This additional sailing opportunity is an exciting development that will help to grow high school sailing and, with early sunsets in the Fall, will also help to extend the sailing season to mid-October. Next time you're in Pittsburgh look for us on the Allegheny River near the Point, Saturday mornings 8:30 to 11:30 am or Wednesdays 3:00 to 4:30 pm. (weather permitting of course)

Our partnership with the Sailing Club of the University of Pittsburgh has been a fundamental reason for our success. Pitt sailors were on hand when our fleet of RS Quests was delivered last year; they led the effort to assemble and test the boats; and have taken on the task of putting our boats away for winter storage and spring launching. We are continuing this great partnership by working with them on a weekly practice schedule for their Fall sailing season. Hail to PITT, sailing!
